Helpful Hints

Be sure to consult with your study abroad office, financial aid department, and/or academic advisor before applying. They may have their own application process or requirements that you need to follow. They can also provide guidance on getting your chosen study abroad program approved for credit transfer and financial aid, as well as other helpful information about working with your home university or college.

Research your program. Be sure to research the program you'd like to attend to learn about the destination, application deadlines, eligibility requirements, dates, and more. Not sure which program is a good fit for you? Call us toll-free at 877-617-9090 or email us at info@cisabroad.com. We're happy to help!
