

2019 국제하계대학 한국어 수업

(2019 Sogang International Summer Program – Korean Language Class)

Level : Elementary Korean I

Textbook : 서강한국어 1A (student book, workbook)

Instructor : TBD

I. Course Description and Objectives

This course is for beginners learning Korean for the first time in their life. The students learn phonics, the character system of the Korean language and basic conversational skills to survive in Korea. By learning basic grammar, vocabulary, conversation, reading, listening and writing as well as Korean culture in a categorized and integrated methodology using various teaching materials, the students effectively obtain the minimum communication skills necessary to survive in Korean society through step-by-step practice that can then develop in the socio-cultural dimension.

II. Course Objective

1. Understanding Korean language through listening and reading
2. Ability to express and describe in Korean
3. Ability to understand Korean vocabulary

III. Course Structure

Classes will include combinations of speaking/writing session and reading/listening session which will be taught by different instructors. Since this course is student-centered, you are expected to cooperate with other students and participate in group activities. In addition, you are allowed to speak in Korean in class.

IV. Grading (This policy is more likely to change. A detailed grading policy will be announced on the first day of the class)

There will be mid-term exam (35%) and final exam (35%). Each exam will measure how much students understand Korean in terms of listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Class attendance and participation will take 30% of total grade.

Attendance and Participation : 30%

Midterm Exam : 35%

Final Exam : 35%
